Rebecca made a motion to approve September financials, Greg seconded. Motion carried.

NRCS- Chris discussed a new Farm and Ranch Protection Plan (FRPP) that NRCS is rolling out. NRCS is working with landowners around the Skagway area on a large EQIP project. They are going to have the ability to roll out funding on projects almost immediately with the Just Find It initiative. Chris is almost done with his Arizona detail and is now back in the Woodland Park office. He will put together an NRCS programs talk for the TPCD annual meeting on October 19th, 2024. They currently have 19 projects out of this office.

Partner Biologist- N/A

CSU Extension: Darian is reaching out to local community groups like NoFloCo, in order to see what this area has to offer. He invited the board to a screening of the new Temple Grandin documentary to be shown in November. More info to follow. He let the board know that they could use sponsorship for the 4-H achievement banquet. The board will discuss adding money for the 2025 budget. The Master Gardeners will continue to run the potato program in 2025. He also told us about the Harvest Festival that will be happening at Paradox Brewing on the 12th.

DM-see attached. Marisa's evaluation was tabled to a future meeting. Lisa Taylor introduced herself as the new TPCD employee.

Old Business: the By-laws announcement was placed in both counties' newspapers. The board will hold a vote at our annual meeting in Fairplay. The annual meeting food and venue is all set for Highside Brewing in Fairplay, Colorado.

New Business: Lisa Taylor has been hired to assist in the office with Marisa.

Supervisor Reports:

Laurie: Laurie filled the board in on the Upper Arkansas Watershed meeting that she attended with Lisa.

Rebecca: N/A

Wendy: Wendy updated the board on the rural veterinary ballot initiative.

John: N/A

Greg: Greg and Wendy have been attending the Park County planning meetings and making connections. The county will eventually have meetings regarding a master plan.
